

R.E.D. VALENTINO

R.E.D. VALENTINO FALL / WINTER 2007/2008 COLLECTION

Elegance meets style and femininity in the FW07/08 collection of R.E.D. VALENTINO, where fine tailored pieces are embellished with sophisticated details, graphic prints, and a doll-like spirit.

Coats and jackets seize the limelight this season, as patent leather adds vitality to classic trench coats. Jackets with flared sleeves and tulip lines are paired with sleek pencil skirts, shorts, and skinny pants, creating a silhouette that is refreshingly modern for the R.E.D. VALENTINO woman.

For day, cropped skinny jeans look effortlessly chic with black and white striped tops and patent leather jackets. Reinterpreting the silhouette of pencil skirts, fitted denim overalls are complemented by crisp white shirts and black turtlenecks, along with a denim bow on the waist.

The juxtaposition of distinct patterns and fabrics build a collection that is rich in texture yet filled with youthful energy. Classic skirt suits are given a 60s twist as dotted shirts are matched with tightly-fitted pencil skirts, checkered cropped jackets and knitted turtlenecks, whilst red wool capes are paired with red mini skirts for a look that is simple yet playful.

Graphics and floral are major patterns of the season. Bateau neck jackets, A-line sheaths, and sleek pencil skirts adorned with fur trims can be found in black, white, green, and beige colors.
